

STOCK EXCHANGE ANNOUNCEMENT

Announcement no. 22 - 2006/07

December 08, 2006

EU COMMISSION TO MAKE ASSESSMENT OF NERA SATCOM ACQUISITION

On October 10, 2006, Thrane & Thrane completed the acquisition of the Norwegian company Nera SatCom AS and its German subsidiary European Satellite Link GmbH.

Prior to closing the transaction, Thrane & Thrane obtained approvals from the European competition authorities following mandatory notifications of the acquisition. Some countries operate a system of voluntary notification, and their regulatory bodies may elect to investigate the matter after the acquisition has been completed. The UK competition authorities used this option and subsequently asked the EU Commission for an assessment.

The EU Commission has now informed Thrane & Thrane that it needs to receive a notification of the transaction. A decision in the matter is expected before the end of January 2007. Thrane & Thrane does not expect the EU Commission's decision to significantly change the terms and conditions of the transaction.
